ADAPTED AND DIRECTED BY MARCUS LUNDGREN

Kansas girl survives a tornado, befriends a brainless scarecrow, a heartless tin man, a cowardly lion, and ruins one very green witch's day. Watch our Young Company take on this timeless tale as only they can!

YOUNG COMPANY

Through the Young Company program, youth gain invaluable experience working together, building skills in collaboration, storytelling, and performance while creating something magical for our audiences. The friendships formed and lessons learned often last a lifetime. At a time when creative spaces for young people are more important than ever, supporting programs like our Young Company helps ensure that the next generation of artists, storytellers, and theatre lovers continues to thrive. By supporting the Young Company, you're not just helping put on a show; you're helping inspire young people, nurture their creativity, and keep the spirit of live theatre shining bright for years to come.
