

Audiology (Hearing) Services for Children

Brant, Haldimand and Norfolk and Surrounding Areas

Audiologists are regulated healthcare professionals who assess and treat hearing difficulties. They are authorized to prescribe and fit hearing aids and other assistive listening devices and can provide training and education to children and their caregivers.

It is best to inquire about fees for service when you book your first appointment with an audiologist.

*The clinics below do not charge for hearing assessments for children unless otherwise noted.

You do not need a doctor's referral to see an audiologist at the clinics listed below unless otherwise noted.

Additional listings of audiologists may be found through: www.sac-oac.ca or www.caslpo.com

PLEASE NOTE: Grand Erie does not recommend or endorse the following clinics or professionals. This list is for information purposes only and it is recommended that parents or caregivers contact these clinics directly in order to determine if they are appropriate for meeting their child's needs.
